3no antennas, 2no dishes, 4no cabinets and all ancillary development including compound area, security fencing, traffic barriers and new point of access/egress to public road.
PC comments:
Concerns were raised that construction would impact on the River Mease.
Cllr Nicholls suggested contacting Trent Rivers Trust to inform them of this planning Application. Cllr Nicholls will address this on behalf of the PC and this was agreed by all Members.
 - c. In his additional role as a Lichfield District Councillor, Cllr Bennion informed the meeting that the "Local Plan 2040" that had been in preparation for over 5 years and was currently under final Examination by the Planning Inspectorate may not ultimately be adopted by the District Council. Leading Councillors were seeking to abandon it and restart the process. The Meeting could not support such seemingly regressive action.

11. Councillor's Reports on responsibilities
 - a. The bench near the school has overgrowth covering it from a nearby hedge. This will be looked into to find out who is responsible for cutting it back.
 - b. Notice Board by St David Road needs painting and new locks. It was agreed that paint and new locks will be purchased by Cllr Green who will complete the work.
 - c. The dog waste bins are full at the bus shelter. If not emptied this week the Clerk is to report this to LDC. Cllr Amsden and Cllr Tongue to inform the Clerk if this is needed.
 - d. The bus shelter by the church is in need of repair. It was agreed that bus shelters in all locations need to be assessed and for work to be carried out next year.
Quotes to be sourced.
 - e. Road signs at the top of Chestnut lane need reporting to the Highways Dept. Cllr Amsden to take photographs of signs that need attention and will send them to the Clerk.
Cllr Amsden shared leaflets regarding fund raising taking place by Village Hall for Macmillan Cancer Support with members, for their information only.
 - f. Pot holes in Syerscote Lane still an issue. Cllrs Bennion and E Leedham to send locations details to the Clerk for reporting Highways and Cllr White.
 - e. New SIDS are working well, and Cllr E Leedham will share data with members before the next meeting.
 - f. Cllr Nicholls shared that Hauton BKV had been 'Highly commended' at this year's presentation. Thoughts on tidying up Clifton Campville were discussed and Cllr Tongue will look into ideas for this. Cllr Tongue will also help with any planning and allotments reports as part of 'Councillors responsibilities'
12. Approval of Clerks holiday 15th – 22nd September 2023 was given.
Banked hours and holiday entitlement will be used to cover this leave.
